In 2011, there are [redacted] producers which achieve the capacity of [redacted]. [redacted] with the pentaerythritol capacity of [redacted] is still the largest producer in China and its output accounts for [redacted] of China's total output in 2010. Also there are other two producers whose capacity are over [redacted], they are [redacted] and [redacted]. The capacity of these top 3 producers account for [redacted] of China's total in 2011.
